

Ten years have passed quickly

When we created Endurance, our goal was to build a company that stood apart, offering clients specialized knowledge from service-oriented professionals aided by sophisticated analytics. Thanks to you and the enduring relationships we've forged over those years, we've been successful.

Today we celebrate our 10th anniversary as a global insurer and reinsurer built on financial stability, disciplined underwriting and uncompromised integrity. As we look ahead to our next decade and beyond, Endurance remains committed to delivering a diversified portfolio of risk management products to our clients as we build the partnerships of tomorrow.
